Secretary Mellon in Conference on Foreign Ship Problem

SHOWDOWN TO BE FORCED

Two Liners Bound for New York to Test Law

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — Secretary Mellon began a series of conferences today in an effort to clear up the new ship liquor situation developing from the determination of several foreign shipping companies to bring liquor into American waters under the customs seals of their government.

Prior to the deliberations the secretary declared there was no doubt of the general right to seize contraband within American waters but added that the question whether an agent of the American government dared destroy a foreign government seal presented a grave problem.

BRITISH CHALLENGE

SOUTHAMPTON, — (Associated Press) — The Cunard liner Berengaria which sailed for New York last Saturday, carried sufficient alcoholic liquors for her return voyage under the same kind of lock and seal as that employed by the White Star liner Olympic which sailed yesterday, it was learned today.

A showdown over the question whether British ships can satisfy the thirst of their passengers on their trips from dry America to wet England therefore seems likely to come sooner than had been expected.

The first challenge probably will be thrown down tomorrow when the Berengaria is due to pass the Statue of Liberty.

PLANS SECRET

NEW YORK — (Associated Press) — Plans of the customs authorities for meeting the challenge by the Cunard line of the treasury department's ship liquor ruling by bringing in on Berengaria tomorrow under governmental seal liquor for use on the return trip were concealed behind a close drawn curtain of silence today.

Collector Elting was officially "out" to callers. Assistant Collector Stuart was reported in an important conference and was believed to be in touch with Washington. A high official who refused to be quoted, said his idea was that the liquor should be seized by that "no-body" could tell what would happen next in the prohibition mixup."

59 Persons Dead From Heat

TOLL HEAVIEST IN MIDWEST, EAST

Several, Crazy by Torrid Wave, Commit Suicide

THOUSANDS SLEEP ON BEACH

Streets Are Wrecked as Pavements Blow Up

Fifty-nine persons have perished as a result of the heat wave sweeping a great part of the United States.

These casualties occurred in Missouri, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, New York, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

Suffocating heat was reported throughout the east and middle west. Thousands of sufferers slept on beaches along the Atlantic coast and in big city parks were thrown open for the same purpose.

This is the longest day of the year, and it started out with even higher temperatures in many places, than yesterday. More deaths and prostrations are considered inevitable if the heat continues.

Continuation of the scorching weather for the remainder of the week is predicted by government weather bureau officials.

Of the 22 victims whose deaths were either directly or indirectly caused by the torrid weather, eight were victims of heat prostration, 11 were drowned, two committed suicide and one was killed by lightning.

Latest deaths reported follow:

Heat prostration—Fred Kadhes, 45, Niles; Dr. Ralph A. Dalby, 47, Youngstown and Peter Galicatenia, 35, Akron.

Drownings—Clarence Smart, 18, New Germany, drowned near Dayton; Miss Alice Shanks, 38, drowned in Chagrin river at Bentleyville; Eugene Dankworth, 8, Piqua and Rudolph Starc, 12, Cleveland.

John Liporoco, farmer, of near Wellington, hanged himself. Ill health aggravated by hot weather, prompted the act, his relatives believe.

Temperatures as high as 92 prevailed in many sections of the state yesterday.

Heat in the opinion of city officials, was responsible for the "explosion" of a section of brick paving, 30 feet long and the width of the street at Sandusky. The section of the street was wrecked.

Concrete pavement east of Fremont, expanding under the heat, "exploded" just as an automobile driven by Leo Jeffrey of North Adams, Mich., was passing. The machine was dented and damaged but Jeffrey escaped serious injury.

15,000 SLEEP ON BEACH

NEW YORK.—(Associated Press.) —Fifteen thousand persons, mostly women and children, slept on the beach at Coney Island last night to escape the warmest temperature of the year and thousands more awoke today on other beaches and in parks of the metropolitan district. Five deaths from the heat occurred here yesterday.

17 DIE AT CHICAGO

CHICAGO.—(Associated Press) —No break in the heat wave which has held Chicago a d vicinity in its grasp since Monday, was seen in weather forecasts today. Seventeen persons have died in Chicago since Monday from heat prostration. The temperature yesterday climbed to 83 degrees, three degrees cooler than the maximum for the week.

160 Trapped When Flames Sweep Chicago Building

CHICAGO.—(Associated Press) —Ten persons, nine of them negroes and one an unidentified white man, were burned to death and about thirty negroes were injured, when fire early today swept thru a three story tenement containing 24 flats, occupied by nearly 160 tenants, at 22nd and Federal-sts, on the South Side.

The building was virtually a fire trap, according to firemen who, with police rescued a half hundred of the tenants while the panic-stricken leaped from windows and a fire escape which failed to swing down.

Joseph Smith, a furniture dealer in the building, was taken into custody for questioning and admitted, according to the police, that he had operated a still in the basement and had left a gas jet burning. He said the gas flame was about four inches from the plaster ceiling, under the front stairs.

Locomotive Works Gets Order From Pittsburg Railroad

FINANCIAL STATUS SPLENDID

Unfilled Orders Assure Capacity Operation For This Year

An order for 10 switching locomotives has been received by the Lima Locomotive Works, L. A. Larsen, vice president, announced Thursday morning.

These are for use by the Union Railroad of Pittsburg, a line organized to do the necessary hauling for several steel mills in that district.

Value of each of the locomotives was not disclosed, but it is understood that the total of all unfilled orders on the books of the company is slightly under $20,000,000. Value of orders at the end of 1922 was $14,749,091, it is said.

With current bookings being received, it is estimated that the plant will be able to operate at full capacity until well toward the end of the year, officials said.

Redemption of all of the preferred stock of the corporation and the taking of common stock in exchange, has left the company on the soundest financial basis in its history, it was pointed out. There is not a dollar of funded debt, the bonds having been called in last fall, it is explained.

Dividends are being paid at the rate of $4 a share on the $50 par value stock, making the dividend rate eight per cent. As current assets at the end of 1922 were $7,302,000 and current liabilities $2,220,000, the working capital is placed at $5,082,000. This should practically insure the continuance of the present rate for some time to come, it is pointed out.

Thursday May Be Hottest Day As Well As Longest

Thursday will not only be the longest day of the year, but it will probably be the hottest recorded so far.

Old Sol poked his head over the Allen-co border line at 4:23 a. m. and is scheduled to sink to rest at 7:33 p. m. This makes Thursday just one minute longer than either Wednesday or Friday.

A cloudless sky offered no hindrance to the rays of the sun and indications were that the oppressive heat wave would not be broken. Clouds Wednesday night seemed to promise rain, but they had passed around Thursday.

For the past 14 mornings Sol has been getting up at 4:23 a. m. When one stops to think about it, that is a mighty early hour for an old man who has been taking regular trips for so many years.

Sol seems to think so too, for Friday he will crawl out from under the covers at 4:23 a. m. and from then on will get up later and later until December 21, he will arise at 7:21 a. m. and retire at 4:34 p. m.

While Sol will last in bed for the longer in the morning, he will stay up later at night for a while. For the next eight days he will not hide his face until 7:24.

This will be a good day for fishermen and farmers. Each will be able to put in a full day, it is pointed out.

CAR PROJECTION STRIKES MEN

Trainmen Felled As They Are Preparing For Regular Run

YODER MAN DEATH VICTIM

Accident Occurs As Train Passes Metcalf-st Crossing

Jasper Jones, 50, of Yoder, five miles southwest of Lima, was fatally injured and M. O. Burt, of 704 Broadway, was painfully injured about 8 o'clock Thursday morning when they were struck by an extra freight on the L. E. & W. Railroad at the Metcalf-st crossing. Jones died on the way to the hospital. Burt was said to be out of danger at his home.

Jones, a conductor on east bound train No. 63, and Burt, engineer on the same train, were reading their orders while standing near the engine of their train, between tracks No. 1 and 2. No. 63 was ready to leave on track No. 1.

An extra freight train, moving east, in charge of A. Ruff, the conductor, and E. N. Fry, engineer, both of Lima, had nearly passed the two men.

HIT BY PROJECTION

Something protruding from the side of one of the cars struck the two men. Persons on the caboose of the extra freight saw them on the ground, stopped the train and called an ambulance from William & Davis.

The men were taken to City hospital, but Jones was dead before arriving there.

Burt was painfully bruised and cut. After physicians had dressed his wounds he was taken to his home in a taxi.

Railroad officials are investigating to ascertain what projected from the side of the train which struck the men.

CORONER INVESTIGATES

Dr. Frank Smith, county coroner, was investigating the theory that a floor board from one of the cars was extending from the side of the car and struck the men. The coroner's examination of the body of Jones disclosed that his ribs were broken and that his lungs were crushed.

Funeral services for Jones will be announced after relatives arrive here.

Jones is survived by his widow and one daughter, Gertrude.

He had been employed at the L. E. & W. Railroad in various capacities for 20 years.

STRUCK BY TRAIN

Lee Warnick Injured, Automobile Is Demolished

Lee Warnick, 442 Columbus-av., was painfully injured at 4:30 a. m. Thursday, when an L. E. & W. Railroad switch engine struck an auto in which he was riding, at the Metcalf-st crossing of the B. & O. Railroad.

The switch engine, in charge of Engineer M. J. Hoffman, 811 S. Elizabeth-st., and D. G. Carr, fireman, 1437 S. Main-st., was approaching the crossing from the south. The automobile was moving east on Market-st.

Warnick's car was dragged 200 feet along the track, according to information received by Police Detectives Ray Blair and Jess Hargrove. The automobile was completely demolished.

A physician attended the injured man, who was taken to City hospital.

CORN GROWS TWO INCHES A DAY

Fields Thriving Under Influence of "Growing Weather"

SUN IS DAMAGING WHEAT

Plans Outlined at Harrod For Tubercular Drive

Allen-co corn fields are thriving under the concentrated rays of Old Sol. H. J. Ridge, county agent stated Thursday.

Corn is growing at the rate of two inches per day, he declared. Farmers of the county are getting the fields into excellent shape during the prevailing dry weather. Corn will be much further advanced by July 4 than it was at that time a year ago, he predicted.

Excessive heat is damaging the wheat, Ridge said. Continued heat without rain will cause the grain to shrivel. The present dry season is aiding the farmers to get their crop into the stack, he observed. Many farmers throughout the county are now in the hay fields and prospects indicate a fair yield for the first cutting.

Members of the Auglaize Farm bureau met Wednesday evening at the Harrod high school auditorium, in regular session.

Ridge outlined the general program for the coming bovine tubercular test. Members of the Farm bureau decided to prepare test papers for circulation at the next meeting, July 15.

Members of the Perry-tp bureau will meet Friday evening at the township house to hear a similar discussion of the tubercular drive.

Reports of the official auditor of the Ohio Farm Bureau federation received at the county office Thursday indicate that 50 cooperative organizations in the state are scattered throughout 60 counties.

Of these organizations, 30 are cooperative grain elevators and 50 are county live stock associations. Books of the organizations were declared to be in excellent shape.

Approximately 100 acres of Allen-co farm land was re-seeded this spring to Grimm alfalfa, Ridge announced. Grimm alfalfa is advocated by state farm organizations in preference to other types because of its extensive root branching system.

MILK TRUCKS AFFECTED IN BUS LAW DECISION

Local trucks operated by cooperative milk associations will be subject to the new bus and truck law provisions when it becomes effective and will be required to pay the taxes prescribed by legislation, it was learned Thursday.

The decision was given Thursday by Judge E. F. Corn, counsel for the state public utility commission. Henry S. Ballard, attorney for the state Farm Bureau federation, asked for a decision on the grounds that the trucks were not available for public hire.

FIRE CAUSES $100,000 LOSS

OIL CITY, Pa. Fire caused by an explosion today threatened the twelve acre oil refinery of the Pennsylvania Refining company at Rouseville, near here but was finally extinguished with a loss estimated at $100,000. Proximity of the flames to large quantities of gasoline and kerosene prompted the state police to order all automobiles off the streets and merchants to move their stocks to places of safety.

RELIEF IN SIGHT, MAYBE BY NIGHT

Good thing we're in the Lake Erie region. Perhaps for that reason we'll get at least partial relief by nightfall from the torrid wave that has been sweeping over this region.

Generally fair tonight and Friday if the current forecast holds. Not quite so warm near Lake Erie.

It's fine in anticipation, whether it amounts to much in realization. Not altogether inviting for strenuous exercise is the present weather condition, but

There must have been his daily constitutional. Chasing a hoop along the street thru the boiling rays of Old Sol starts perspiration freely, and that always helps in adding mankind's physical condition, particularly since the past winter lingered long into spring days.

Vacations, picnics swimming, fishing, golfing, tennis, baseball, hikes into the country, visits to the woods and other outdoor recreation in good form. Use food water sparingly, don't get excited over anything, and—well, you'll be able to withstand the heat and live longer.

Lima people are apparently observing safety first in the daily order of their lives, for very few cases have been reported wherein folks have been seriously affected by the torridity.

HUSBAND'S LOVE COOLS, WOULD WED ANOTHER, WIFE CHARGES IN DIVORCE SUIT

Charges that John W. Worth, 35, Cleveland automobile salesman, has attempted to put her aside, in order that he might be free to wed another, are contained in a divorce petition filed in common pleas court Thursday by Mrs. Margaret C. Worth, 32, chiropractor, W. Springfield.

Property settlement has already been entered into, Mrs. Worth declares, and all she seeks is freedom for herself and custody of her little daughter, Jean 7.

They were married at Detroit in 1914, and later went to Cleveland to reside, it is recited. Mrs. Worth declares that nothing she could do in the way of housework, cooking or anything else seemed to meet with her husband's approbation.

He neglected her, she says, annoyed her, and constantly complained. Also, he commenced to pay attention to others the wife alleges and give other evidence that his love for her had cooled.

So in 1919 Mrs. Worth entered a divorce suit, but failed to resume practice of her profession. Worth, she says, declined to permit her to do so when she returned.

SHERIFF'S POSSE MAY BE MET BY MADMAN SLAYER

ESCANABA, Mich. — Sheriff's posse, augmented today by hundreds of Upper Michigan residents, believe they will face a madman when they find George Natchoff in a swamp where Natchoff fled after shooting Deputy Frank Curtin, following an escape from Marquette prison.

Reporters sent back from deputies said Natchoff was thought to have become demoralized thru attacks from poisonous insects and eating wild vegetables. He carried no food into the marshy undergrowth infested by innumerable mosquitoes.

Reward for the fugitive's capture has been increased to $500 and the posse has orders to shoot on sight.

REHEARING OF NATURAL GAS FIGHT MAY BE HAD

WASHINGTON.—The state of West Virginia today asked the supreme court for a rehearing of the natural gas cases brought against it by Ohio and Pennsylvania.

The request was taken under advisement with the result that the court's mandate to carry out its decision of June 11 will remain in abeyance until after the regular fall term begins on October 1.

In that decision it was held that West Virginia could not restrict the exportation of its natural gas and that the state law providing for a commission to regulate the flow of the gas across state lines was invalid as an interference within interstate commerce.

KU KLUX KLAN INITIATES CANDIDATES NEAR LIMA

With three large fiery crosses illuminating the William Tanscott farm, east of the overhead over the Erie Railroad on the Bellefontaine, several hundred candidates were initiated in the order of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan at a gathering held Wednesday night. An American flag, 100 by 50 feet, was hung in front of the largest cross in the center. Hundreds of persons from Lima drove near to the scene of the initiation.

Plans for a large Klan meeting to be held at Russell's Point Indian Lake, Fourth of July, are being made by Klansmen of Allen, Hardin and Logan counties, it is stated. It is said that thousands of Klansmen will attend the all-day ceremonies. A parade and initiation will feature the event.

DRYS TO COMBAT WET DRIVES

Forces Being Marshaled at Westerville for Campaign

40 STATE CHIEFS GATHER

Governor Smith is Attacked for His Attitude

WESTERVILLE, Ohio — (United Press) — Stirred to action by what its officials term a "prohibition repeal trend," the Anti-Saloon League of America today massed its forces to curb "back tracking" on dry law enforcement by state legislatures.

Forty state superintendents of the league are enroute to Westerville, the nation's "prohibition capital," to plan a new campaign against "wet" drives said to be under way in half a dozen states.

The backward step in New York and similar proposals in other states will be met at once by a determined movement to react an enforcement code," said J. A. Baker, general superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League.

Baker declared the process will "leave in its wake a fine collection of political graves."

SMITH ATTACKED

"We propose meeting Governor Al Smith of New York and all other back trackers on prohibition at every point," Baker said.

Baker scored Governor Smith for his "hypocritical plea for state's rights" and declared that Smith is not a candidate for presidential nomination "except to secure the New York Democratic delegation for trading purposes at the nominating convention."

Baker charges Governor Smith, Tom Taggart of Indiana, and Senator Edwards of New Jersey, "will attempt to marshal enough votes to force the coming Democratic convention to accept a wet candidate."

"The Anti-Saloon League believes, Baker said, that the effort to repeal state enforcement codes has no purpose except to break down the enforcement which may aid in the restoration of wine and beer."

"We realized that when Governor Smith signed the repeal bill it would be like the chief bellwether jumping the fence. A number of little bellwethers would attempt it," said Baker.

"So we decided to call together the leaders of the league movement, take stock of each state, discover any weak points, in order to mass our forces when necessary."

Baker declared that if the Democrats nominate a "wet" candidate, "it will be fine fun rolling up another seven million majority against their candidate."

BINGHAM TO ATTEND OHIO MUNICIPAL LEAGUE MEET

City Manager C. A. Bingham will go to Columbus Friday to attend a meeting of the Ohio Municipal League of which he is president, for the purpose of discussing the proposed referendum of the Taft law. Bingham said the league will initiate a movement to discourage the referendum because it is felt that the Taft law provides relief for municipalities in the matter of revenue from taxation and that if the Taft law fails it will be a severe blow to municipal progress.

Other officers of the league are First vice-president, Mayor Carroll of Cincinnati; second vice-president, Mayor James Thomas, Columbus; and secretary, Keaton Ruddle, city manager of Middletown.

While in Columbus Bingham said he would call on the state health commissioner in an effort to obtain the $1,000 subsidy due the Lima health department.

BINGHAM TO FIND SPACE TO PARK BAGGAGE TRUCKS

Proposition to allow owners of baggage and express wagons to park their vehicles on S. Main-st. Union-st. and other places will be presented to the city commission Monday by City Manager Bingham. City has objected to baggage and express wagons occupying parking places on Main-st. between Wayne-st. and the alley. As a result a petition was presented the city commission last Monday asking that the city designate some other suitable place.

Bingham said some place would be provided for parking space for baggage and express trucks but that the city could not permit horse-drawn vehicles to occupy downtown streets for sanitary reasons.

H. O. BENTLEY WILL HEAD COMMERCE BOARD DRIVE

H. O. Bentley president of the Board of Commerce, will assume active charge of the financial campaign of that body. It was decided Thursday noon at a luncheon meeting of the executive committee and members of the re-financing committee at the Elk's club.

A further meeting of the same representatives of the Board will meet next Thursday to institute the financial drive. The drive will be confined to active members of the board, it was announced.

WORLD DISARMING BELIEVED NEAR

League of Nations Plans Declared to be Progressing

PEACE TO BE GUARANTEED

Steps in Program Outlined by French Official

GENEVA — (United Press) — "Progress towards a definite plan and basis for disarmament is being steadily made by the League of Nations, except that the public must not expect results too soon. It has already been established that the problem is exceedingly more vast, complicated and difficult than anyone supposed before an actual effort towards solution was made."

This is the declaration in an exclusive interview to the United Press of Colonel Emilio Requin, member of the French general staff, and president of the league of nations permanent military, naval and aerial advisory commission. Colonel Requin has just finished the presiding of a long session of his commission at Geneva, on which the technical details of the League's plan for disarmament were worked out. The commission will meet at London this summer to work out the political aspects of the problem.

"We are I to venture a purely personal conjecture to the utmost rapidity with which a disarmament basis can be reached I would say that it would be as follows," Col. Requin continued.

"At last year's meeting of the League Assembly that body laid down and established the general principles which it is conceded constitute the only basis on which disarmament can take place at the present time."

"At this year's meeting of the Assembly in September, it may be hoped that the League will be able to adopt a definite method and project for disarmament."

"Then, finally, at next year's meeting of the Assembly, the League should be in a position to place this project in execution by incorporating it for example into an international treaty and convention which all nations shall be called upon to sign."

"Work towards this end is being pushed as rapidly as the various technical commissions of the league charged with the task can proceed."

"The whole plan will be based upon the principles laid down by Lord Robert Cecil two years ago, namely that disarmament can only take place in exchange of a definite guarantee of safety. Security and disarmament are inseparable."

"Naturally every state will want to be certain that the guarantee offered is adequate. It is generally conceded that such a guarantee to be effective must imply that it be adequate, that it is fully prepared in advance, and that it is appreciable at any place at a given moment."

"It is on this basis that the states signing the mutual guarantee would be required to furnish military, naval and aerial contingents necessary to meet any emergency that may arise."

"Similarly every state participating in the mutual agreement pact would want to feel that the guarantee was adequate to keep it from becoming the victim of any aggression. As a consequence the general aim would have to be first to have the guaranteeing force sufficiently strong to immediately check and wipe out any violation of frontier or aggression."

"Then in the worst aspect of the case should this first resistance prove ineffective other resources would be available to localize the conflict and prevent it from developing into a world war."

As soon as this project of guarantee has been worked out on a basis so that every subscribing nation will feel that it really does offer effective national security, then the next aspect of the problem will be to decide on what proportion or degree of disarmament can be carried out in exchange for this international, mutual defensive pact."

Then finally, when that aspect of the problem has been solved, the whole can be incorporated into a national treaty for the nations to sign, or some other method of execution and application carried out.

"Even after the general plan is adopted, however, will come the final stage of the problem in deciding how the plan is to be made effective, whether by international treaty or otherwise, and thus it is that the problem is one of long solution. The important fact however is that steady progress is being made."

TIN BEACH GIVES REAL TAN

New Rendezvous Most Popular Place in New York City

ROOF OF ANY BUILDING

Rushing Growler Again Popular in Big Town

NEW YORK — (Special) — You are familiar, of course, with Long Beach, Brighton Beach, Coney Island beach, and others. Are you acquainted with Tin Beach?

Tin Beach is the most popular resort in New York. It attracts thousands of people. It is the cheapest, and the easiest to get to.

A rich tan shade is decidedly the proper thing in complexion these summer days. Many acquire it by salt water bathing, but there are thousands who must put in long days in offices and factories who would have to go about unfashionably bleached if it were not for the popularity of Tin Beach.

Sunday mornings the crowd is thickest. Go up on the roof of most any building in town and you will see the population out on the roofs—reading, napping, sewing or idling. They're after that fashionable local color.

That's Tin Beach—the roofs. And often there's more of a crowd than the seaside resorts have.

Mighty little community life exists in the big town. There are few points of personal contact. Here's an example:

Every now and then passersby see several small signs tacked to trees near the Prospect Park Plaza subway kiosk in Brooklyn. The signs advertise articles lost and found, giving addresses of people living in the vicinity. They figure the city is so big that they have more chance of reaching the neighborhood by this kind of advertising than if they depended on the big daily newspapers.

Statisticians say New York is made up of people from small towns all over the world. Perhaps that's why public band concerts—ancient institution of the small town—are popular. It's the open season now for band concerts in the new city bandstand on the Mall in Central Park. Edwin Franko Goldman's orchestra used to give concerts on the Columbia University campus, but crowds became so large a bigger spot was necessary.

Greenwich Village has more ghosts than any other section of New York. They're not ectoplasmic ghosts, not the Conan Doyle kind.

In our best literary circles they are the people whose profession is known as "ghosting"—that is, a struggling author hiring himself out at so much per word to write a book for somebody else to sign his name to. They have come into fashion with the urge that has recently attacked about one in 10 to write a book. Lacking technique or patience, anybody with the price can hire a Greenwich Village ghost to do the job.

One villager has written four travel books under four different signatures, and has three other contracts.

The country long has been supposed more healthy than the city. Yet Health Commissioner Moneghan has issued a set of health hints to city dwellers planning vacations in the country.

"Those of us who live in the city," he says, "have been so accustomed to a pure water, milk and food supply that when we go to the country we are apt to become careless. All doubtful water should be boiled. Don't drink milk right from the cow. It may not be pure. Better pasteurize it by heating to the boiling point, let it cool off, and then put it on ice before drinking."

There is a promenade in the heart of New York's busiest section, where the pedestrian is absolutely safe from traffic and there isn't a single store along the sidewalk. It is the stretch that runs thru the middle of Longacre Square, just north of Times Square, from 43rd st. to 47th-st. This little right-of-way is guarded by police posts and it's as safe and tranquil as any Main Street on a rainy Sunday afternoon yet few New Yorkers use it; they seem to prefer making a detour and plunging thru the crowds in negotiating this oblique intersection of Broadway and Seventh-av.

Somebody must have spread the word down south that New York laundries were cracking under the strain. The other day a couple emerged from Pennsylvania Station and started slowly up Eighth-av. very wary of clanging traffic. The husband marched ahead lugging two great bundles of baggage, and behind came the wife, carrying her paper!

RAILROAD READY TO GIVE UP

Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis Running on Nerve

"STRUGGLED" 70 YEARS

Bond Owners Anxious That Road Should Die Peacefully

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (Associated Press)—A railroad "running on its nerve" is the description given by its managers to the Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis railroad, the largest in the United States to be released by the Interstate Commerce Commission from its obligation to continue interstate traffic.

The bond holders have asked that the road be permitted peacefully to end its fiftieth career because expenses are about to eat up their security, but they have found it harder to kill a railroad than it is to acquire one.

While commerce commissions, legislative committees, courts and dozens of patron committees are attempting to apply the pulmotor to the railroad's ebbing life, its managers say they will shortly have to relinquish it, because its equipment and road bed are becoming dangerous for public use.

This is the largest railroad lying wholly within the state of Illinois. It is the net result of many buyings and sellings and combinations of roads, which finally resulted in the consolidation of two lines in 1900 to be known as the Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis Railway Company of Illinois. The road was born in bankruptcy, the two parent companies being in the hands of the federal court at the time they were consolidated, and bankruptcy has been its lot almost all the time since.

OPERATES 247 MILES

The main line runs from Peoria, Ill., to East St. Louis, operating 247 miles of track, of which 237 are owned and the balance is under lease. Branches run from Havana to Jacksonville and from Lock Haven to Grafton. Its first track was laid as early as 1853.

Its territory is almost exclusively agricultural, except for a potential industrial district on the south end of the line, near East St. Louis. Its greatest revenue is derived from intermediate freight business transferred from connecting line to connecting line. It serves six coal mines with a potential daily capacity of 9,000 tons. There are only eight other industrial plants on the line. The local freight depends entirely on agricultural products and live stock.

There are about 65 towns and villages on the line. Of these, 36 communities have no other railroad. These 36, however, are small, ranging from station stops of eight persons to the town of Athens, of 1,440 population. The total population of all the communities which will be without railroad service if the Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis railroad is abandoned, is about 11,400. Many of these towns depend on automobile trucking, and in fact the plight of the road is ascribed by the road's management partly to the constantly growing use of the automobile for both freight and passenger traffic.

The passenger business has decreased from 773,793 passengers in 1912 to 344,673 passengers in 1922. The road has 1,637 freight cars, of which 1,029 are in bad order according to W. C. Hurst, general manager of the road, and 28 of its 61 locomotives were out of service for repairs on March 24 last.

The operation of the property has resulted each year since 1917 in a deficit, until the net asset liabilities of the receivers is now close to $1,000,000. For the causes of these troubles, Mr. Hurst points to the federal control during the World War, when much of the freight business went to other lines and has never returned, and to the great increase in wages without a corresponding increase in freight rates.

During the war the road was consolidated with the Chicago and Alton road, its chief competitor, and much freight business which went to the Chicago and Alton at that time has never returned. The road is at a disadvantage, also, according to its officials, because it is not only the longest line between competitive points but has heavier grades than any of its competitors.

The final disposition of the road is now in the hands of the Sangamon circuit court which placed it in receivership in 1914. What jurisdiction the Illinois Commerce Commission will have in this crisis is a matter of dispute. Many lawyers contend the commission can only regulate such common carriers and has no power to keep this road in operation, and that especially in this case only the courts can deal with the situation because it is in effect a foreclosure proceeding and exclusively within the jurisdiction of a court of equity.

ODD FELLOWS PICK NORWALK

MIDDLETOWN.—Ohio Odd Fellows will hold their Grand Lodge session next year at Norwalk, it was decided by unanimous vote of the delegates this morning.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE

YOUR MONEY SHOULD BE SO PLACED THAT IT WILL BE SAFE BOTH TODAY AND TOMORROW.

In the present period of unusual business activity and high prices in all lines, it is more necessary than ever to be careful in investing money. Five per cent interest is a liberal return where safety is absolute.

Among the financial institutions of Lima we are known as conducting a conservative business and paying five per cent on deposits. We place the additional profits into a adequate reserve, now more than $92,000.00, as a further protection for our depositors.

We propose to continue these policies and upon the basis of Safety we seek your account.

WAR IS WAGED ON TUBERCULOSIS

County Wide Drive Against Affected Cattle Arranged

STATE INDEMNITY IS SOUGHT

Conference to be Held at Y. M. C. A. June 29

Plans for a countywide drive against bovine tuberculosis and preparations for acquiring a share of the $15,000 state indemnity fund that becomes available July 1, will be outlined at a general conference meeting of various organizations June 29, at the Y. M. C. A. H. J. Ridge, county agent, announced Thursday.

Included in the conference will be representatives of the state veterinary department, the board of directors of the Farm bureau, city and county health officials, representatives of the Board of Commerce, masters of granges, county commissioners and members of the Equity Creamery board.

F. A. Zimmer, state veterinarian will be present at the dinner meeting, called for 6:30 p. m., to outline steps necessary to become eligible for the indemnity funds. E. S. Augsberger of Lima, federal veterinarian for this district, will also be present at the meeting.

The county wide conference has been called to coordinate the various activities under way by township units throughout the county, Ridge said. Plans have already been formulated by five townships whereby the herds of each community will be made available for testing.

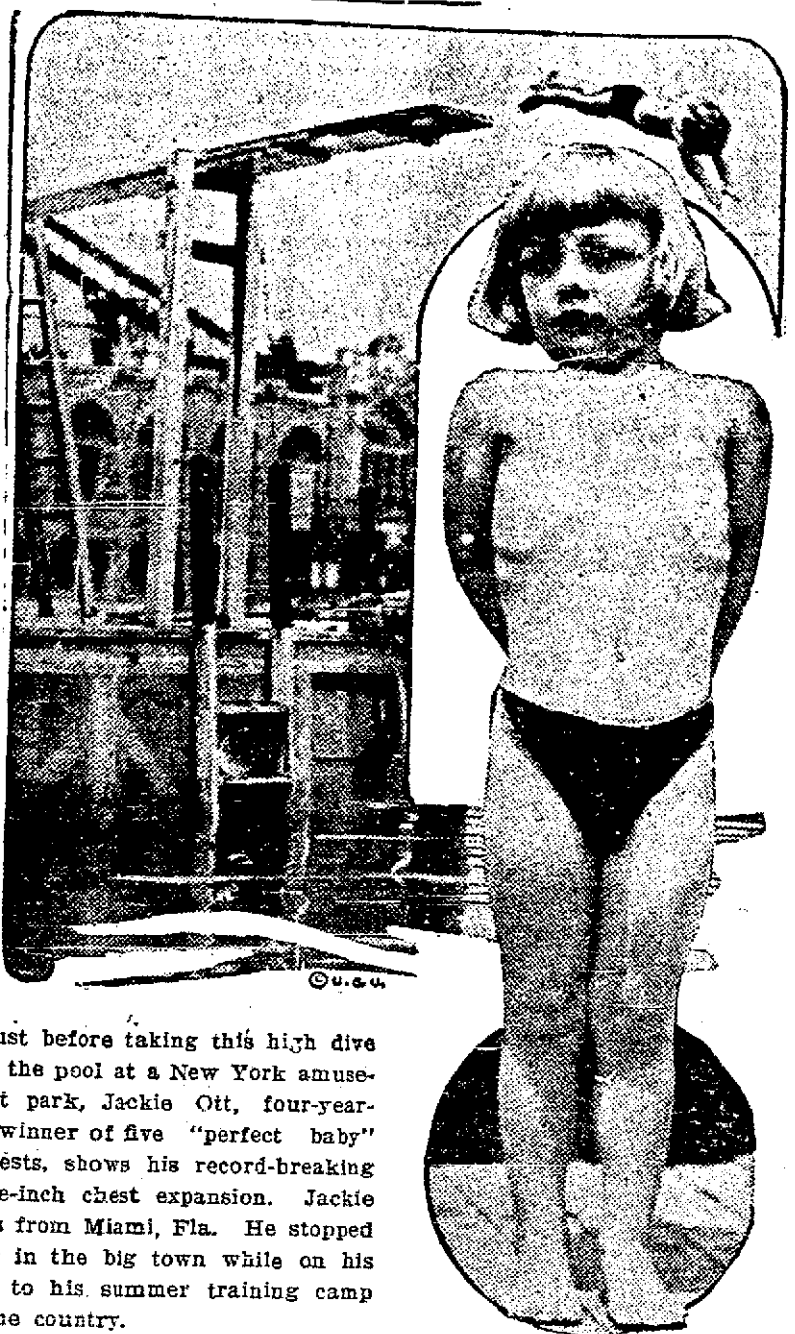

READY FOR TEST

Batch-up has already signed up 750 heads of cattle for testing as soon as state and federal inspectors are provided. Steps have been taken in the following townships to secure signatures of herd owners to submit their cattle to the tubercular test: Jackson, Monroe, Auglaize and American.

It is probable, Ridge announced, that the move for tubercular testing will be made on the area of free basis. Testing will proceed one township at a time and as each unit secures the signatures necessary, inspectors will enter the township to determine the number of tubercular infected herds. A total of $300,000 was appropriated by the last legislature to be used as an indemnity fund for the years 1923-24. One half of the amount became available July 1.

Inspection work by federal and state authorities will probably start in the county as soon after July as organization plans permit, Ridge declared.

MUST PAY TAX OR $1,000 PENALTY

Special Imposts Due On Or Before First of July

SPECIAL LEVIES OUTLINED

Warning Issued By Deputy Revenue Collector

Penalty of $1,000 plus 25 per cent of the tax due, awaits Lima tax payers who fail to pay occupational and special taxes on or before July 1, John Marsh, deputy internal revenue collector, warned Thursday.

Payment of special taxes required by law must be made strictly on the dot, Marsh declared, or the full penalty will be invoked. The government grants no delay in returning the tax, he stated.

Registration with the federal government by physicians, veterinarians, dentists and dealers in narcotics is required on or before July 1. Failure to register carries a specific penalty of $1,000.

TAXES IMPOSED

Special registration taxes are imposed as follows: Importers, manufacturers, producers and compounders of narcotic drugs not specifically exempt, $24; wholesale dealers in narcotics, $6; practitioners lawfully entitled to distribute narcotic drugs, $2. Hospitals, sanitariums and educational institutions are included in the latter class.

Applications for registry, which must be filed by July 1, extend to the following: Manufacturers, producers and importers of cereal beverages; manufacturers, importers and producers of unfarmaceutical fruit juice; manufacturer, producer and importer of still drinks containing less than one half of one per cent alcohol by volume; manufacturer, producer or importer of finished or fountain syrups of the kinds used in mixing soft drinks; manufacturer, producer or importer of carbonic acid gas used in the manufacture of soft drinks.

MUST PAY TAX

Failure of the above class, which includes many soda fountain proprietors in Lima, to register on or before July 1, will result in the $1,000 fine, Marsh warns. It costs nothing to register, he points out, but $1,000 not to register.

Special tax will be due July 1 for hire of automobiles and boats. This class includes all local taxi companies and individuals who use either automobiles or boats for hire. Separate returns must be made on each car or boat.

Included in the list of special tax payers, subject to the July 1 payment of tax are: Retail dealers in uncolored oleomargarine; manufacturers, retailers, wholesalers of adulterated butter, renovated butter and filled cheese pawnbrokers, shipbrokers, custom house brokers; proprietors of theaters, museums and concert halls.

Application blanks for registry and payment of special tax are available at the office of the deputy revenue collector in the postoffice building, Marsh announced. Payment may be made either thru him or directly to Washington.

Special tax payments may be made only by certified check or postal money order, he stated.

"The importance of getting special taxes and registrations in by July 1 can not be over estimated," he declared. "There is absolutely no reprieve granted for the special tax payer who neglects to conform on or before that date. It means $1,000 plus the 25 per cent additional."

AGE OF 78 NO HANDICAP IN GYMNASIUM CLASSES

"GRANDMA" SCHULTZ TRIES THIS DAILY TO KEEP YOUNG

ST. LOUIS. — (Special)—She's 78 years young and attends gymnastics regularly.

That's the proud record of Mrs. Dorothy Schultz—more familiarly known as "Grandma" here.

Her friends say no bob-haired sapper is more athletic than she.

"How come?" interrogated the perplexed reporter.

"Plenty of exercise, lots of time spent in the open, and 24 hours a day devoted to loving fellow beings," she answered.

"How about dancing? Does that help one keep young?"

"During my youth I was very fond of dancing," she said. "We often stayed up till the wee sma' hours, in those days. But dances were different than they are now."

"You can say I am 78 years young—not old. And that I expect to be here for a long time to come. Probably you will feel older than I when you interview me on my 100th birthday," was the parting "shot" of "Grandma," who was a bride when the Civil War broke and a mother when Lincoln was assassinated.

FUEL, LIGHTING MATERIALS DECLINE FIVE PER CENT

WASHINGTON. — Wholesale prices declined appreciably in May from the April figures, according to information gathered by the labor department in representative markets. On 404 commodities a drop of nearly 2 per cent from April was indicated. Foodstuffs and house furnishings goods, however, remained unchanged.

Fuel and lighting materials, the department's statement said, were five per cent lower, due to continued decline in bituminous coal, coke, crude and refined petroleum and gasoline. Clothes and clothing declined 2 per cent, resulting from decline in cotton goods and raw silk. Farm products and

Indian Methods—Past and Present

In days gone by, when an Indian became ill, he depended upon mysterious rites performed by certain members of his tribe, who were supposed to have the power to dispel the "evil spirits" which were thought to cause the trouble.

Yet, before we smile too broadly at their beliefs and methods, were they so very different from those of us today who blindly try any cure-all that is widely heralded?

Much suffering—and much needless expenditure of health and money—would be saved if in every case of illness the doctor were called without delay and his instructions closely followed.

Whenever you are ill call your doctor. If medicine is prescribed bring us the prescription.

WAS TOLD HE WAS PAST HELPING

Then Found the Plant Juice and Says It Has Given Him Relief

HAD BAD STOMACH TROUBLES

"I was told that my stomach was ulcerated and that there was no relief for me and I had suffered so long that I almost believed this was true and that my case was hopeless, but since I have taken your Plant Juice a wonderful change has come over me so that I am able to eat almost anything."

ERNEST R. BYERS

of food I want and I will never be able to thank Plant Juice enough after what it did for me."

These were the grateful words of Mr. Ernest R. Byers, of 2330 Chestnut-st., Fort Wayne, Indiana, during a conversation with the Plant Juice Man recently. Continuing, he said:

"I tried nearly everything but I could not get relief," Mr. Byers continued. "For a long time my stomach was in such condition that I existed entirely on liquids for eating meat or anything solid was simply out of the question. My stomach ached and I had terrible heartburn; my bowels were always constipated so that I had to take physics continually; liver was inactive and caused bad headaches. I also was nervous and slept poorly and felt completely worn out—without any ambition or strength at all. I was getting so run down that I was afraid I would have to give up my job."

"I read so much about Plant Juice that I started taking it and I'm sure glad now for it has made a wonderful change in me. I have a good appetite and can eat meat, potatoes, beans or almost anything without distress afterward—no more sour stomach or heartburn. My bowels are regular; liver works properly and the headaches are gone; nerves are quieted so that I sleep soundly. I feel better and stronger in every respect and can work 12 to 14 hours a day now without getting tired out."

The Plant Juice Man is at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, Lima, where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given.

Plant Juice is sold also in Lima at Hunter's drug store at Main and Wayne-sts., and at the Argonne drug store, opposite Post Office.—Adv.

THE RED REDMAYNES

Thrilling New Detective Serial for Readers of The Lima News—Do Not Miss An Installment of This Fascinating Story By Eden Philpotts

CHAPTER I The Ramor

Mark Brendon, at thirty-five, already stood high in the criminal investigation department of the police. He was indeed about to receive an inspectorship.

Mark was taking a holiday on Dartmoor, devoting himself to his hobby of trout fishing and accepting the opportunity to survey his own life from a bird's-eye point of view, measuring his achievement, and considering impartially his future, not only as a detective but as a man.

He found himself with five thousand pounds saved as a result of some special grants during the war and a large honorarium from the French Government. He was also in possession of a handsome salary and the prospect of a promotion, when a senior man retired at no distant date. Too intelligent to find all that life had to offer in his work alone, he now began to think of culture, of human pleasures, and those added interests and responsibilities that a wife and family would offer.

He was somewhat overweary after a strenuous year; but to Dartmoor he always came for health and rest when opportunity offered, and now he had returned for the third time to the Duchy Hotel at Princetown. Being a good talker he never failed of an audience there. But better still he liked an hour sometimes with the prison wardens. For the convict prison that dominated that gray smudge in the heart of the moors known as Princetown held many interesting and famous criminals.

He had found an unknown spot where some good trout dwelt and on an evening in mid-June he set forth to tempt them. He had discovered certain deep pools in a disused quarry fed by a streamlet.

Foggy Quarry, wherein lay these preserves, might be approached in two ways. Originally broken into granite bosom of the moor for stone to build the bygone war prison of Princetown, a road still extended to the deserted spot and joined the main thoroughfare half a mile distant.

Brendon, however, came hither by a direct path over the moors. Leaving Princetown railway station upon his left hand he set his face west where the waste heaved out before him dark against a blaze of light from the sky.

Against the western flame appeared a figure carrying a basket. Brendon, with thoughts on the evening rise of the trout, lifted his face at a light footfall. Whereupon there passed by him the fairest woman he had ever known. She was slim and not very tall. She wore no hat and the auburn of her hair, piled high above her forehead, fringed the warm sunset beams and burned like a halo round her head. And she had blue eyes—blue as the gentian. Their sparkling eyes met Brendon's.

She walked quickly with a good stride and her slight, silvery skirts and rosy, silken jumper showed her figure clearly enough—her round hips and firm, girlish bosom. Her eyes met his for a moment with a frank, trustful expression, then she had passed.

The vision made Mark pensive, as sudden beauty will, and he wondered about the girl.

Tramping forward now, the detective came to a great crater that gaped on the hillside. It stood above the dead quarry workings of Foggator. Underneath him opened a cavity with sides two hundred feet high.

He proceeded to the extreme breadth of the quarry, fifty yards north, and stood above two wide, still pools in the midst. Trout moved and here and there circles of light widened out on the water and rippled to the cliff beyond.

Mark set about his sport, yet felt that a sort of unfamiliar division had come into his mind and, while he brought two tiny-eyed flies from a box and fastened them to the hairline leader he always used, there persisted the thought of the auburn girl—her eyes blue as April—her swift, delicate tread.

He began to fish as the light faded but he only cast once or twice and then decided to wait half an hour. He ground his rod and brought a briar pipe and a pouch of tobacco from his pocket. The time of day were turning to slumber, but still there persisted a clicking sound, uttered monotonously from time to time, which the sportsman supposed to be a bird. It came from behind the great activities that ran opposite his place by the pools. Brendon suddenly perceived that it was no natural noise but arose from some human activity. It was, in fact, the musical note of a raven's croak, and when presently it ceased, he was annoyed to hear heavy footsteps in the quarry.

A big, broad man approached him, clad in a Norfolk jacket and knickerbockers and a red waistcoat with gaudy brass buttons.

The stranger stopped as he saw Brendon, straddled his great legs, took a cigar from his mouth and spoke.

"Ah! You've found 'em, then?" "Found what?" asked the detective.

"Found these trout. I come here for a swim sometimes. I've wondered why I never saw a rod in this hole. There are a dozen half-pounders there and possibly some bigger ones."

It was Mark's instinctive way to study all fellow creatures with whom he came in contact.

He saw a pair of broad shoulders and a thick neck over which hung a square, hard jaw and a determined chin. Then came a big mouth and the largest pair of mustaches Brendon remembered to have observed on any countenance. They were of a foxy red, and beneath them flashed large, white teeth when the big man talked in rather grating tones. His hair was a fiery red, cut close, and of a hue yet more violent than his mustaches.

The big man appeared friendly, the Brendon heartily wished him away.

"This bally place seems to bewitch people," said the big man. The other laughed. "There is a magic here. It gets into your blood."

"So it does. A man I know is building himself a bungalow out here. He and his wife will be just as happy as a pair of wood pigeons—at least they think so."

"I heard a travel chinkin'." "Yes, I lend a hand sometimes when the workmen are gone. But think of it—to turn your back on civilization and make yourself a home in a desert!"

"Might do worse—if you've got no ambitions."

"Yes—ambition is not their strong point. They think love's enough—poor souls. Why don't you fish?"

"Waiting for it to get a bit darker."

"Well, so long. Take care you don't catch anything that'll pull you in."

Laughing at his joke the red man strode off thru the gap fifty yards distant. Then in the stillness Mark heard the purr of a machine. He had evidently departed upon a motor bicycle to the main road half a mile distant.

When he was gone Brendon rose and strolled down to the other entrance of the quarry that he might see the bungalow of which the stranger had spoken.

The day grew very dim and the fret of light and shadow died off the earth, leaving all vague and vast and featureless. Brendon returned to his sport and found a small "coachman" fly sufficiently destructive. The two pools yielded a dozen trout, of which he kept six and returned the rest to the water. Tramping back under the stars, his thoughts drifted to the auburn girl of the moor.

Four evenings after his first fishing expedition to the quarries, Mark devoted a morning to the lower waters of the Meavy River; at the end of that day, not far short of midnight, when glasses were empty and pipes knocked out, half a dozen men, just about to retire, heard a sudden and evil report.

Will Blake, "Boots" at the Duchy Hotel, was waiting to extinguish the lights, and seeing Brendon he said: "There's something in your line happened, master, by the look of it. A pretty robbery tomorrow."

"A convict escaped, Will?" asked the detective, yawning and longing for bed. "That's about the only fun you get up here, isn't it?"

"Convict escaped? No—a man done in seemingly. Mr. Pendean's uncle-in-law have slaughtered Mr. Pendean by the looks of it."

"And who is Mr. Pendean?" "The gentleman what's building the bungalow down to Foggator."

Mark started. The big red man flashed to his mind complete in every physical feature. He described him and Will Blake replied: "That's the chap that's done it."

that's the gentleman's uncle-in-law!" Brendon went to bed and slept no more for the tragedy. Nor, when morning came and every maid and man desired to tell him all they knew, did he show the least interest.

He was just slipping on a raincoat and about to leave the hotel when Will Blake appeared and handed him a letter. He felt curious and, not associating the incident with the rumored crime, set down his rod and crook, opened the note, and read what was written:

"3 Station Cottages, Princetown. 'Dear Sir: The police have told me that you are in Princetown, and it seems as though Providence had sent you. I fear that I have no right to seek your services directly, but if you can answer the prayer of a heart-broken woman and give her the benefit of your genius in this dark moment, she would be unspeakably thankful.'"

"Pathfully yours, 'Jenny Pendean.'"

Mark Brendon murmured "damn" gently under his breath. Then he turned to Will.

"Where is Mrs. Pendean's house?" he asked.

"In Station Cottages, just before you come to the prison woods, sir."

"Run over, then, and say I'll call in half an hour."

Students who failed in their work the past year will be benefitted by the school, it is stated. No new subjects may be taken, but one subject in which the student failed may be made up. If grades in the "failed" subjects reach a certain standard, students may take two studies in an effort to gain the credit.

BUSINESS IMPROVING, IS OPINION OF INSPECTOR AFTER MAKING SURVEY

Business is on the up-grade in northwest Ohio, confidence of farmers is being restored and they are making investments, according to Carroll W. Johnson, of Newark, N. J., supervising inspector of the real estate loan department of the Prudential Insurance Company.

Carroll saw C. A. Stauffer, United States district marshal, have just returned from a trip over northwest Ohio counties. Johnson's conclusions are based on observations made during this trip.

"The farmer is maintaining a greater confidence and he does not seem afraid to invest, as has been the case some months ago. He was hard hit by the depression and he almost lost his grip on farming," Johnson said.

"But the wise farmer is sticking to the soil and is going to be the winner in the end. I found little dissatisfaction among the farmers whom we visited. They were making reinvestments and were purchasing more land and improving the number of acres they had and are obtaining fair prices."

Most of the loans are from $500 to $2,000 depending upon the farmer's financial condition and his investment or purchase. But every month business becomes larger and more farmers are prospering.

"The farmer is getting better and he is soon to come into his own and that feeling is coming back," Johnson said.

HUGE CONFERENCE IS PLANNED

One Thousand Welfare Workers Will Hold Convention Here

BOARD OF COMMERCE TO AID

Nationally Known Speakers Are To Make Addresses

More than 1,000 Welfare workers from over the state will be in Lima, October 16 to 19, if estimates received Thursday by the Board of Commerce from R. R. Knight, secretary, are correct.

A tentative outline of activities for the four days was received by J. E. Morton, manager, to aid in arrangements for the reception of the largest assemblage of out of town delegations in Lima for many years.

Attending the convention will be welfare workers from over the entire state, including superintendents and matrons of public homes, county organizations, representatives of the American Red Cross, juvenile and probation officers and many others.

Present plans call for a visit on the afternoon of October 18, to the State hospital and for a general discussion at 2 p. m. It is estimated that 500 persons will attend the State hospital clinic. One of the duties of the Board of Commerce will be to provide transportation to and from the hospital, Morton said.

Plans for the annual conference include business and official sessions throughout each day of various welfare units. At these meetings, comparison of policies of the past year will be made, and cooperative suggestions offered for the ensuing year.

Each night a general session will be held, at which nationally prominent welfare workers are expected to speak. Names of speakers to be in attendance have not been made public.

USE MEMORIAL HALL

Memorial hall will probably be the headquarters for the conference, Morton stated. One of the problems of the local committees is to secure a hall large enough to accommodate crowds for the general sessions each evening.

Judge J. H. Hamilton is general chairman of the local committees in charge of affairs and ex-officio member of each of the committees appointed.

Chairmen of other committees are: Rev. E. Bruce Jacobs, halls and meeting place; Mrs. Julia Simpson, hotels; Dr. Josephine Peirce, publicity; Walter Parmeter, printing; Mrs. Glen Woodruff, registration and information and Mrs. Nettie Miller, hospitality. Financial committees has not been named as yet.

Judge Charles W. Hoffman, of Cincinnati, is president of the Ohio Welfare Conference and H. R. Knight, Columbus, is executive secretary.

Annual conference was held at Columbus last year and more than 800 attended.

EXPANSION FORMS STOP EXPLOSION OF PAVEMENT

Commenting on a reports from Fremont Thursday that a section of concrete and brick pavement on one of the main streets of that city had exploded because of the intense heat, City Manager C. A. Bingham said such explosions were common occurrences in cases where street paving is not properly laid.

Bingham said that in order to resist expansion of paving in the summer and contraction during the winter it is necessary to lay expansion forms about every 40 feet. These forms are installed on all new paving jobs in Lima, Bingham said.

MANY PAYING FOR THEIR FREEDOM

Court Records Show That 220 Make Alimony Settlement

MONDAY IS FAVORITE DAY

Divorcees Waste No Time In Collecting Money Due

More than 200 men in Allen-co pay tribute in the form of alimony, to former wives each month, statistics gathered in the office of John T. Cotner, clerk of courts, show.

To be exact, the number of husbands on the books is 220, but Clerk Cotner says some of them have ceased paying. Records disclose that there are several men in the county who pay double alimony.

Alimony payments which pass thru the clerk's office average approximately $20,000 yearly, Cotner declares. The amount of money handled by his office in May, was $1,817.04. A one per cent fee is charged under the law for handling payments.

Cotner is the agent under the law for both parties. Men pay him the money each week or month, as specified in the decree, and the former wife calls for her check.

RECORDS KEPT

A careful record is maintained. Each amount is credited on one page, and each amount paid out charged against it. In this way the former husband can't say he has paid, when he hasn't and the gay divorcee can't get more than is due her. Some of them try it, however, according to Cotner.

"I never argue with them," he says, "I just show them the books and the return checks."

Some husbands pay their money each week, others every fortnight or monthly. The court fixes the time and manner of payment.

almost on the same minute in the some pay faithfully each week, day. Monday is a big day for alimony collection, Cotner says, and Tuesday is a big day for disbursement, although some divorcees are after the money almost as soon as it's paid.

Others seek to avoid paying up as long as possible, and tell all sorts of hard luck stories. They pay just enough, as Cotner puts it, to stay out of the clutches of the grand jury.

After a man is brought in for non-support, payments are made thru the prosecuting attorney's office, rather than the clerk. This is to give the prosecutor a chance to keep tabs on them.

DELPHOS NEWS

RELIC UNEARTHED BY LIMA MAN

Always interesting are relics which recall incidents of the long ago. The latest to come to light in connection with the history of Delphos is a newspaper clipping, located among the effects by H. D. Tolman, former county clerk, for many years publisher of the Delphos Herald, and founder of that newspaper. Tolman is now a resident of Lima, 334 W. Market-st. He is near 90 years old.

The newspaper article tells that while looking over old papers in the F. Kern building in Canal-st., near the Pennsylvania railroad, in Delphos, J. H. Kuhns found a circular pertaining to a proposition to build a railroad, which later was a part of the T. C. & W. and the old C. H. & D. Railroad.

The circular bears date of February 14, 1870, and details a proposal originating in the Stillwater Valley to construct a rail line from some point on the C. H. & D. north to Covington, New Bremen and St. Marys, striking the Washish Valley road at Defiance.

D. J. Martin and N. J. Teeter of Covington, were the moving spirits back of the proposition and a meeting was arranged to be held at Covington March 1, 1870.

It was pointed out that so direct a road, passing thru the rich counties of Miami, Auglaize, Mercer, Allen, Putnam, Adams, and Williams, and northward to the immense pineries of Michigan, with a direct line via Defiance and Toledo, would be of incalculable benefit.

The communication was signed by J. M. C. Marble, J. W. Hunt, D. H. Tolman, T. W. Brotherton, H. D. Clark, J. C. Scott and W. P. Bowers, pioneer business men of Delphos.

OLD TIME BALL PLAYERS TO STAGE FIELD FROLIC

Baseball ancients may have an opportunity to display their prowess on the diamond, if a meeting of Dr. J. E. Jenkins is carried out. He has rounded up a team of old-time players on Third-st. and will issue a challenge to other sections of the business district.

CHIEF AT DELPHOS IS ONE-MAN FIRE DEPARTMENT

Fire Chief Frank Grothouse acted as a one-man fire department Thursday at 7 p. m. He made the discovery, turned in the alarm and extinguished the blaze himself.

Going on duty, he moved a blaze in an awning in front of the Scott grocery, W. Second-st. Fire had made good headway and total destruction of the awning was threatened. Grothouse did the double-check and succeeded in putting out the fire before it had time to spread.

Somebody slipped a cigar or cigarette butt into it, the chief believes.

DELPHOS COMMITTEE IS SEEKING AID FOR FAIR

A. O. Wulforth is in communication with A. P. Sandies, Putnam-co fair secretary, relative to arranging a date with Governor Donahoe and the agricultural director for a delegation from the Tri-county fair association to go to Columbus and confer with them on state aid for the fair.

As soon as the date is arranged, according to Secretary A. J. Shenk, a group of ten or 15 will appear to the state officers for the same aid now being received by the Columbus Grove, Bluffton and other nearby independent fairs.

POLICE HEAR NOTHING OF LAD LOST AFTER MISHAP

Information concerning the strange disappearance of Leo Males, 17, of Lima, who vanished after an auto accident Sunday at Delphos has been sent to police departments within a radius of 200 miles, but so far nothing has been learned about the boy's whereabouts, according to Chief of Police Kohres, Thursday.

$110,000 PAVING IS PROJECTED

Streets in Gomer, Bluffton and Delphos Included

Estimates on the cost of paving streets in Gomer, Bluffton and Delphos, planned by the county, were submitted to the county commissioners Thursday by Walter R. Toy, county surveyor.

They include the paving of Grove-st., Bluffton, at a cost of $32,000; Lima-av., Spencer-av. and Suthoff-st. Delphos, to cost $39,000, and Lincoln Highway and Bucyrus-rd., thru Gomer to cost $50,000. The total cost will be $110,000, Toy's figures show.

The prices quoted provide for the use of asphaltic concrete throughout, Toy said. When the work is advertised, bids will also be taken on asphalt macadam and reinforced concrete. Cost of the latter material will be over than asphaltic concrete, it is stated.

All of the projects are to be paved 30 feet wide and property owners will pay for the 12 extra feet of road, beside paying their regular proportion on the 18 feet in the middle of the road.

Commissioners will advertise the roads for sale in the near future.

Why They're Using

Joint-Ease for Burning Feet

Just because it is now known that painful, sore, aching, swollen feet are caused by the many joints in the foot and Joint-Ease soaks right in and gets to the seat of the trouble—the cartilage and ligaments of the joints.

And to think that for generations we have been powdering and soaking our feet, thinking the trouble was only skin deep—an old-fashioned idea.

Well, better late than never—just stop the powdering and medical bathing and other foolishness for three days and just rub on Joint-Ease—And remember when stainless Joint-Ease goes in foot agony goes out—quick—60 cents a tube.

Gypsy Band Is Given Hurryup Police Orders

A swarm of dusky nomads, traveling in high-priced autos, appeared in Delphos at 6 p. m. Wednesday. Their sojourn continued until they had annoyed a number of residents with their itching palms, and then the police got busy.

Chief of Police Kohres ordered Patrolman A. Humphreys to "shoo" them away. There was a swirl of red skirts, a barrage of guttural noises from the males who objected to the unseemly treatment, a patter of bare feet on the sidewalks and the gypsies, numbering over 40 were on their way westward.

Complaints rained in at police headquarters because some of the youngsters were clad in the "all-together."

Rumors that several pockets were picked were heard, but the supposed victims, after a count of their change found everything intact.

"BOWL" PLANNED FOR FIGHT

Tented Arena For 2,000 at Delphos For Mason Appearance

Arrangements will be made to seat between 1,500 and 2,000 persons in the tented arena in which Frankie Mason, Ft. Wayne, former boss of the fireweight and bantamweight divisions, will meet a strong opponent in his class, Independence Day at Delphos.

The "bowl" will be erected on the K. of C. building site, a stone's throw from the intersection of the main highway and the railroad. Seats will accommodate a huge crowd around the ring and tiered seats will be erected along the Limbach-bldg., which borders the lot on the north side, according to Joseph Scherger, chairman of a Kivans committee in charge of arrangements.

It is expected to rent the seats from St. John's school.

Scherger Wednesday night completed arrangements with Charles Marshall, Lima referee, to officiate as third man in the ring. No developments have resulted so far in efforts to book an attractive semi-windup and several preliminaries.

The boxing show will be one of the big features of the celebration for opening of Delphos city park.

DELPHOS MAN, NATIVE OF GREECE, SEES SMALL HOPE FOR BALKAN PEACE

TOWNS BECOME LAKES OF ASH

Lava Continues to Spread Ruin in Etna Region

MORE VILLAGES DOOMED

Molten Streams Rapidly Advancing on New Hamlets

CATANIA. — (United Press.)—One hundred hours after the first great blast from Etna's cone started a panicky exodus of tens of thousands of Sicilians from the path of the fiery lava flows that followed, the molten streams from the volcano still advanced upon hapless towns and deserted hamlets today.

One of the main streams of steaming, withering lava moving with decreasing speed around Mount Etna's foot hills suddenly shot out a fiery branch which now is advancing, like a steam roller or a tank upon the hamlet of Laviaro. Destruction of the little township seems imminent.

Relief work continues with the presence of King Victor Emmanuel a powerful factor for the thousands of peasants whose homes lie beneath the lava lakes that still spread as the eruption goes on with undiminished intensity.

Ashes and cinders still fall at great distances from Etna.

U.S. CRUISER AWAITED

CATANIA. — (Associated Press)—Reports from the Mt. Etna region today said there had been a slight decrease in the intensity of the eruption while the explosions which the crater were less frequent.

With the arrival of Premier Mussolini in prospect, the peasants who are hourly exporting the destruction of their homes by lava flows, became more cheerful for each is the prestige of the premier that many of the ignorant and superstitious peasants literally believe that he will only have to bring his will to bear on the volcano to bring to them almost a living person for the eruption to decrease.

No only have officials in charge of rescue work made all preparations to receive Mussolini and explained to him what has already been done to help those in distress, but the bishop of Acireale plans to conduct the premier to the villages which have suffered most.

The Sicilians are also eagerly awaiting the arrival of the United States cruiser Pittsburgh, believing that the dispatch of the ship, with Ambassador Child and Rear Admiral Philip Andrews aboard, is an expression of the sympathy of the American people.

RAILS MEET FOR INDIAN PAIR

Princess Prairie Flower and Chief Eagle Feather United

An Indian maid's search for a brave to whom her heart was crying out has been ended in Lima.

A letter from Princess Prairie Flower to the local Salvation Army officials printed in The Lima News Wednesday, was read by Chief Eagle Feather, Indian scholar and traveler who is stopping in the city for a time.

She was communicated at once with Captain F. W. Wilkinson and will see the princess immediately. He is anxious to renew his former acquaintance with the Indian maid, whom he describes as a beautiful blonde.

Chief Eagle Feather has been staying in Lima for several weeks, being the big Garford truck in which he travels thoroughly remodeled. The truck is completely equipped with all devices to make it home-like.

The chief is a stalwart brave, besides being a "medicine man" is a lecturer on Indian subjects and has received a thorough education. He is well-to-do and during the past few years has been touring the country.

He became acquainted with the princess several years ago, but fate separated them. Since that time he has not been able to locate her.

Through the channels of information known only to those of their race, the princess learned that the brave, whose name she had forgotten, was near Lima and sent the letter to the Salvation Army officials, in hopes they could aid her.

Indications are that the two will be united and they will be no longer lonesome for either of them, Captain Wilkinson said.

INCREASE IN DIVORCES.—An enormous increase in the number of divorces in Canada, said to have been caused by unrest of the war was disclosed today by the bureau of statistics. Divorces numbered 59 in 1913. In 1919 they jumped to 376. Last year 544 decrees were granted. Divorces are granted in Canada only by the Dominion senate on limited grounds.

CITY EMPLOYE ILL.—The Irene Clark, clerk in the city auditor's office, is ill at her home.

SCENES OF DISASTER IN ETNA REGION

In the background is Mt. Etna, now a roaring furnace of destruction pouring forth five streams of fiery lava thousands of feet wide and 40 feet high, rendering nearly 100,000 inhabitants of Sicily homeless. Townships with homes, such as those shown in the foreground, have been totally destroyed.

BOMB AIMED AT WALL STREET

District Attorney Plans to Close Many Brokerage Houses

FRAUD PRACTICES CHARGED

Aftermath of Failures in Great Trading Center

(BULLETIN)

NEW YORK.—(Associated Press)—The first development in Wall-st today was suspension for a year by the New York Curb Market of one member and expulsion of another. Benjamin Alexander was the member expelled. A. B. Morley of A. B. Morley and Company was suspended.

Alexander was expelled for "an act inconsistent with the curb's principles of trading."

Morley was suspended for "an act detrimental to the best interests of the exchange."

NEW YORK.—(Associated Press)—Wall Street today waited for the explosion of another bomb—perhaps several of them.

The chief explosive, however, was expected when Deputy Attorney John J. Dwyer has carried out his announced intention of asking injunctions compelling many stock brokers who have been under investigation to shut up shop for alleged fraudulent practices.

In anticipation of this event, and the results expected to follow, Wall Street had shoved into the background the events of yesterday.

First, there was the failure of the New York Stock exchange firm of Zimmerman and Forsyth, one of the oldest financial houses in the district. Failure of the firm caused a bad break in the market, more than 80 per cent of the most popular shares hitting the downward path with losses of from 2 to 5 points.

Seymour L. Cromwell, president of the exchange, said the failure could have been averted, if the firm had had more time to negotiate a loan on its frozen credits and thus meet a run of creditors. The company's slow assets were said to include a claim of more than $1,000,000 against the alien property custodian for funds seized during the war.

The firm announced its liabilities at approximately $7,000,000 and assets at $9,000,000.

LATE DEVELOPMENT—Another development in the street yesterday was the announcement by Deputy Attorney General Rosenthal that the New York stock exchange had refused to adopt a resolution requiring its members, on pain of expulsion to waive immunity when called on in civil or criminal actions, to disclose the affairs of their firms. The two other exchanges, the Consolidated stock exchange and the curb market, didn't say they would adopt such a resolution and didn't say they would not.

The New York stock exchange is considering a banking pool to assist embarrassed firms to obtain loans on slow assets in case of inconvenience thru renewed liquidation by investors and speculators.

Banking houses dealing with exchange firms, it is said, will be asked to contribute to the pool in a general move to support the market and restore public confidence.

ONE DAY IS ALLOWED FOR NEW VOTER REGISTRATION

Only one day for the registration of new voters will be allowed by the board of elections previous to the August primary, it was announced Thursday. July 20 is the date.

It has been customary in past years to allow two days, but because of apathy of the voters, hot weather and other causes, the election board cut the time in half.

Offices of the board will open all day for transfers and registration will be carried on in each of the regular precinct voting places in the city.

August 13, the day preceding the primary election, registration by order of the board will be made in each precinct and transfers from one precinct to another allowed by the board.

Only new voters who have become of age since the last registration, and persons moving into the city will be registered July 20. A general registration is held every presidential election year.

MAN IS WIFE AND HUSBAND, TOO

Unusual Roles Played by Accused Slayer of Tesmer

MARRIED TO EVADE DRAFT

Male Spouse Deceived for Six Months As to Sex

CHICAGO.—(Associated Press)—Fred C. Thompson held as the bandit who, disguised as a girl, slew Richard C. Tesmer, became a still greater enigma today when police in questioning revealed that he has been playing the role of husband to a woman while at the same time passing for the wife of a man. Both were arrested with him.

Known to neighbors as Mrs. Frances Garrick, a talented singer and industrious housewife, Thompson has lived with Frank Garrick, a mechanic, in the same building in which he and his wife, Marie Clark, maintained an apartment, according to the officers.

The woman said Garrick "married" Thompson in order to be exempted from military service in the world war and detectives said they found such an exemption certificate. Garrick said they had been married 13 years and that it was six months after the ceremony before he learned Thompson was a man.

PROTESTS INNOCENCE—Meanwhile the police are searching for another man as the companion of the bandit who held up Tesmer and his wife on the night of June 5, and shot the former after taking a few valuables.

Thompson vigorously protests innocence altho two alibis which he presented have been shattered by investigation, police say.

Police plan today to dress him as a man and again take him before Mrs. Tesmer. The widow has seen the suspect only in feminine attire. At that time, immediately after his arrest in Garrick's apartment Tuesday night, she positively identified him as the "smiling girl slayer."

Neither she nor the authorities knew then that Thompson was a man.

Thompson faces his interrogators today still clad in the black gown, silk stockings and high-heeled slippers which he wore at the time of his arrest. His appearance was made incongruous by the two day growth of beard which has penetrated the layers of powder and rouge he still applies to his face.

STRONG DRY MEASURES EXPECTED TO BE ADOPTED

NEWARK, Ohio.—Strong resolutions in enforcement of all federal and state prohibition laws are expected to be adopted by the Ohio State Sunday school association tomorrow. Among other resolutions one is expected which will call for the carrying of the campaign of membership and attendance to the last adult as well as to all children.

In any resolution that deals with prohibition delegates say they will not be surprised if the resolution condemns Governor Al Smith of New York, for signing the bill which repealed the New York enforcement code.

Election of officers will be one of the final pieces of business at the convention tomorrow afternoon, only a few changes in minor officials are expected, it is regarded as absolutely certain that the principle officers including Dr. W. C. Clippinger, of Westerville and A. T. Arnold, of Columbus, will be re-elected.

PRESIDENT SEES HOME FOLKS

Reaches St. Louis Today Where He Speaks Tonight

ON BOARD PRESIDENT HARDING'S SPECIAL TRAIN, PARKERSBURG, W. Va. — President Harding spent a few hours with home folks today as the special train carrying him to the west coast crossed the state of Ohio and then thru Indiana and Illinois, en route to St. Louis where the chief executive tonight will deliver his first formal address.

The presidential train entered Ohio in the early morning hours after traversing a portion of Maryland and West Virginia, completing about 350 miles of the 15,000 miles to the Pacific coast, Alaska, Panama and Porto Rico. Mr. Harding clearly indicated that he was glad to be back in his native state, even though only for a few hours.

The complete relaxation observed by the president since his departure yesterday from Washington already appears to have had a beneficial effect. Both he and Mrs. Harding told members of their party that they had thoroughly enjoyed the trip thus far and they planned to get as much rest as possible before arriving in St. Louis late in the day for a busy eight hour stop.

The plan to rest, however, did not prevent them from continuing to appear on the observation platform of their car whenever the train came to a halt and to greet those who gathered at every point. It became more and more apparent that the presidential party's supply of candy, intended to last during the trip west, would soon be exhausted. Mrs. Harding generously distributed sweet gifts wherever children appeared and usually emptied the president's pockets before satisfying their increasing demands.

WILL LAY CORNERSTONE—Plans for the visit to St. Louis as announced on board the train early today provide that upon arrival there the president and his party will be met by a reception committee of 250 and he escorted first to the Coliseum where he will greet the international convention of Rotary clubs. From there the president will go to the City Club to participate in ceremonies incident to the laying of a cornerstone. Later the president will hold a public reception at a downtown hotel and after a private dinner will go to the Coliseum to deliver his first prepared address, speaking on the world court. At the conclusion of his address he will be taken by Governor Arthur M. Hyde and city officials for an open air municipal theatre in Forest Park to witness the last act of a light opera. Shortly before midnight the party will board the train for Kansas City.

The president made his first real rear platform address last night at Grafton, W. Va. He recalled that he had spoken in that city in 1910 and added:

"We have been thru some varying vicissitudes since then but I think we have entered upon more fortunate conditions. I hope they are more fortunate for you. Our political affiliations after all do not make so much difference. What we want is a fortunate country with happiness and prosperity for everybody in the United States. That I know is wholesome and perfectly sincere thought."

"We are so big and so wonderful that we have never come to a full realization of our greatness. I am going to Alaska so that the government may know better and may be helped in revealing to you this treasure land of ours which is nearly as large as one third of the mainland of the United States and whose boundless resources are as yet undeveloped. We are still an undeveloped republic. We want you in West Virginia to do your part as we want every other community throughout the United States to do its part. I know you will do it."

AN EXCELLENT FILM TO DISPEL SUMMER HEAT

(By GERTRUDE GILLHAM)

THE "Master of Woman" will apply a grateful ice pack to the fevered brow of summer screen exhibitors.

Placed under the lash of blizzard and the frost-bite of Canadian winter, this lavishly done melodrama of the leading posts is dignified by making the setting in the sub-arctic solitudes. Exhibitors may safely cut down on the ice order for pre-cooling the picture is shown.

No danger of chilblains, however, as Renee Adoree's piquant personality and fervid acting bring interest and thaws. She brings to the screen feminine role the vitality, beauty and characterization of the best of northland plays but seems to put stardom within her grasp.

With Miss Adoree, indeed, "The Master of Woman" would not have been made. Reginald Barker, who produced it as a year release for Louis B. Mayer, and virtually given up finding the girl who in type and temperament could do justice to "The Master of Woman" after a canvass of available stars, and that he was ready to abandon the picture because it depended so vitally upon the handling of that part. A last moment call of Miss Adoree, only a few pictures, fully met Barker's demand.

Her colorful portrayal of the wilderness coquette's volatile moods, together with the interesting performance of Pat O'Malley as the swaggering gallant of the Royal Mounted, prove a happy combination. The work of Earle Williams as O'Malley's comrade and superior officer, is decidedly mediocre. Wallace Bernier's role of a lecherous trader, whose murder by

"Poverty of Riches" Is Story of Family Life

THERE are so many outstanding features in "Poverty of Riches," new Goldwyn picture which opened a three day engagement Wednesday at the Lyric theatre, that it is difficult to say what the greatest impression is. The story is one of family life, simply and yet replete with drama, as real as the acting of the all-star cast. The acting of the all-star cast leaves nothing to be desired; and the story shows an actual progression in the unfolding of the characters of the people in the photograph. At the end of the story, it has taught them something, and they are different people from the young married folks we met at the beginning of the first reel.

It is a tale of two families, life and friends and of the joys and sorrows that their different views of life bring. One of the young husbands is ambitious for power and Barbara La Marr, as the backwoods adventuress, is charged to "Andree," complicating dramatic entanglements begun with a kiss lightly taken from the little French maid by the beau of the Mounted.

The story, based on G. B. Lancaster's "Law Bringers," traces the metamorphosis of the two policemen and the girl they love, bringing out in each the dominant nature, under the lash of elemental forces. Their triangular predicament carries them over long snow trails, to an ice-locked whaler in the arctic, to an isolated patrol camp, through roaring rapids in canoes and a dozen thrilling adventures in which Director Barker shows a canny feeling for suspense.

There's a fight between O'Malley and Anders Randolph, as the whaler captain with whom "Andree" takes refuge, that'll tense your muscles. A 125-foot leap from a cliff into a boiling river that will take your breath. And canoe riding through savage rapids which, quite aside from its integration in the plot, quickens the pulse.

This sequence was filmed in Seymour canyon, cost the company 30 canoes before it was achieved, and had been termed impossible by the Canadian Indians of the district.

In selecting his imposing natural background, Barker not only filmed some of the most beautiful scenery on the continent, but managed to give the scenes so with the human action as to augment the varying moods of the picture. He makes scenery symbolic, like painting done with a purpose.

Despite the fact that the plot hovers rather close to the trite situations featuring the Northwest Mounted Police, these other elements lift it above the ordinary and seem to assure audience popularity.

EARLE WILLIAMS (LEFT), RENEE ADOREE AND PAT O'MALLEY IN "THE MASTER OF WOMAN."

William Carleton, Tyrone Power, Ann Luther, Fred Jones, Marcia Harris and a host of other favorites.

The story of "The Truth About Wives" is understood to relate the strange fate which befell a young and charming American girl, Helen Frazer, who, instead of awaiting the dictates of her heart, marries a man of her own social position because it is "the thing to do." Her husband is befriended by Alfred Emerson, a lawyer, who is in love with Helen and loyal to his love. Howard Hendricks, a powerful self-made man, covets Helen, and the masculine trio fight for the girl.

Eventually the husband embezzles from Hendricks, and the latter gives him a year to make good, with the proviso that if he does not Helen is to become his wife. He fails miserably and the upshot is a murder in which Helen is the innocent victim. It would be unfair to give away the plot, but it is said to sustain itself admirably and moves to the climax with a vigor that holds one every minute to the surprising end.

A comedy, Sigma News and added features will accompany "The Truth About Wives."

THE ball-room of the Elks home will be the scene of an elaborate affair Thursday evening, when members of the Alumni Association of St. Rose High school will enjoy their annual banquet. As is the annual custom, members of the present year's graduating class will be honored guests at the gathering. Red and white, the colors of the school, will be predominant in the table and ball-room decorations. Covers for nearly 75 guests will be laid at long tables where large baskets of red roses and white peonies will be used. Red candles, tied with the white tulle will be placed on the tables. Preceding the banquet, which will be held at 7:30 o'clock, a business meeting of the association will take place and election of officers will be held.

Miss Ruth Callahan, president of the association, will give the address of welcome and Eugene Shonahan will be toastmaster. An interesting program has been planned to follow the dinner. Miss Margaret Lynch and Miss Catherine McFarland will sing, "Matthew Galt" will speak on "The Rounded Training Given by St. Rose." Miss Pauline O'Connor, historian, will present a history of the organization and Monsignor Manning will give a short address.

Present officers of the Alumni association, are: Miss Callahan, president; Frank Barrett, vice-president; Miss Anna Reilly, secretary; Francis Connell, treasurer and Miss Pauline O'Connor, historian.

Christ church, Episcopal, which has been the scene of many beautiful weddings, was never more attractive than for the marriage ceremony for Miss Margaret Eleanor Mahaffey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Mahaffey, and Lester Chalmers Thomas, son of Dr. and Mrs. T. R. Thomas, which occurred at 4:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Two large baskets of garden flowers had been placed at the altar, which was decorated with palms and lilies. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Paula Janton, organist, of Columbus, played "To a Wild Rose," "Berceuse" by Zillman and "Adagio" and accompanied Miss Margaret Powell, who sang "The Dawn" and "O, Perfect Love."

At the approach of the wedding party, the tones of the organ blended into the strains of "Lohengrin's Wedding March." Miss Annette Roby, who was maid of honor, wore a gown of old blue organdie and a hat to match; Miss Gertrude Boose and Miss Eloise Cunningham, who were bridesmaids, wore gowns of jade and pink organdie with large picture hats to match. Their bouquets were of old-fashioned garden flowers in the paper holders. The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Theodore Norris of Rock Valley, Iowa. She presented a most attractive picture in her wedding gown of grey georgette crepe, trimmed with grey lace. Her hat was a large blue picture fashion and she carried a shower of various kinds of garden flowers. Rev. Victor Smith, pastor of the Christ church, Episcopal, received the vows and pronounced the benediction.

A reception at the Shawnee Country club followed, when the young couple and members of the bridal party received nearly 100 guests. The tea tables were arranged on the porches of the club and their decorations were most elaborate. Covers for 18 were laid at the bride's table, which had a centerpiece of many various and unusual kinds of flowers. Lavender candles surrounded the floral piece.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas left for a motor trip to Canada and after September 1st will be at home to their friends at 911 E. 54th-st., Chicago. Mrs. Thomas' travelling frock was a

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart: I AM interested in X. Y. Z.'s letter in Sunday's edition of The Lima News. I know you are not conducting a "matrimonial agency," but you seem to have helped many lonely people anyway. I have never approved of men who put an advertisement in this paper's letter column to me. Perhaps, because I am a little old-fashioned, also, I am 28 years of age and do not go out much in society. I attend church and go to an occasional movie.

Please publish this letter and if X. Y. Z. wishes to send me his name and address I will be glad to write to him. Enclosed please find stamped, addressed envelope for reply. Thank you.

I do not have X. Y. Z.'s address. This letter is one of many I have received asking me to send addresses of ones whose letters have appeared in my column. I cannot publish the letters I get each time, but will send the addresses to those inquiring for them. If I have them. In many instances, letters are only signed "Lonely" or "Old-fashioned" and I do not feel that I can help anyone in meeting any friend without the entire name and address. I have letters also for those young men who signed their names "The Lonesome Four" and if they wish the letters, I must have their names.

Dear Miss Smart: Please answer a few questions for me. (1) I am to be married soon and as I am going to another state what could I wear for traveling and to be married in. (2) Will caps be worn this fall? (3) Are King (the famous) serviceable or just for style? (4) I would suggest wearing a tan, blue or grey three piece suit, both to be married in and for traveling. That is, if you are not having a large wedding. If you are having a small church wedding, a white canton crepe dress is appropriate, with either a veil or a hat. (5) Yes, caps will still be popular, particularly silk ones. (6) The sandals are merely a fad. I would not advise getting them for your traveling costume.

FRANKIE BROWN TO WORK HERE THIS WEEK

Will Strut
Stuff At Eagles

Frankie Brown, of New York City, who boxes Jack Gross on the Lima Gym Club's card Monday night at the ball park, will arrive in Lima Friday evening to finish his training. Brown will come here from Cleveland, where he has been working out the past ten days, and will work Saturday and Sunday in one of the local gyms. He will be accompanied by Joe Lewis, well known handler of boxers and at present secretary to Tommy McIntire. Lewis will select a gym and looking over the ones offered for the use of the eastern crack.

It is quite possible that Brown will arrange to work at the ball park either before or after Gross finishes his daily grind there.

Continued assertions by Tommy McIntire, Brown's manager, that Gross will be no more than a set-up for the New York flash has aroused the fears of the Gross followers and the ire of the Gross camp. "Why is he getting in here three days before the fight if he thinks this fight is so soft?" growled one of Jack's sparring partners yesterday. There is a smouldering resentment against the New Yorker throughout the Gross camp for what they term blowing too much. "They feel that Brown would not be sent here three days before the fight if McIntire felt that he had a soft scrap."

Gross appears in excellent condition and is looking well in his workouts. He went four fast rounds with McPherson yesterday and showed plenty of class. What the local boy appears to need most is a bigger assortment of sparring partners. A big fellow that could stand hard blows would be welcomed with open arms.

Ticket sales indicate that the biggest crowd ever on hand for a Lima boxing show will be present when the first going rounds.

Mother, 84, Wishes Jack Luck

THE CHAMPION AND "MOTHER" COYLE
GREAT FALLS, Mont. — Jack Dempsey will step into the ring at Shelby on July 4 with the blessing of Mrs. John Coyle, octogenarian of Peru, Ind.

"Mother" Coyle, 84 years young, en route to Seattle from her home in Hoosier land, came 177 miles out of her way to wish the champion luck.

Sitting in the shade of the old popular grove, planted years and years ago by old Braver Volks, Mrs. Coyle watched Jack work out.

She's a firm believer in athletics. "We always had the gloves and the punching bags and the dumbbells in our home," she says. "One of my sons, had he lived, would have been about as big as Mr. Dempsey."

Jack showed "Mother" Coyle all about his camp. A photographer snapped him as he was pointing out to her some of the sights at Dempseyville.

"Mr. Dempsey, I am sure you're going to win," "Mother" Coyle told him as she said goodbye. "And I'm going to pray hard for you."

The Tigers went back into the first division as Boston beat St. Louis 3 to 1, Elmer holding the Browns to three hits while he won his tenth victory of the season, 3 to 1. Cleveland beat Washington, 5 to 1.

If the Boston Braves continue Thursday to frighten the Pirates of Pittsburgh, the Cincinnati Reds will rise into second place and then Friday battle for runnerup in the National League will be on for Cincinnati which will open a two game series there after resting today.

Pittsburgh maintained its hold on second place by depositing St. Louis and then it neared first by walloping the New York Giants two out of three games, but finally along came two of the weakest clubs in the league, Philadelphia and Boston and the Pirates lost all their frightfulness.

The Reds came up another notch by taking the third game out of four from Brooklyn, 4 to 1.

The Robins were displaced by Chicago. The Cubs managed to take a game from the Quakers, 16 to 1, and are within one point of St. Louis which dropped another to New York, 7 to 5, giving the Giants the edge in the series.

DEMPSEY READY FOR BATTLE,
SAYS KEARNS

GREAT FALLS, Mont. — Jack Kearns manager of Jack Dempsey, evidently is satisfied that the world's champion has reached the climax of his training and will soon be ready to start tapering off. Asked why he limited the champion to four rounds Friday, Kearns said:

"Dempsey is ready. Why should he waste himself. If he feels that a breezing light bout is what he needs, why that is all right with me. Dempsey knows himself better than anybody and nobody can drive him."

Dempsey boxed four rounds Wednesday. He looked faster than on the previous day and his cold has responded to treatment so that it made little difference in his breathing.

MUTT AND JEFF—SPEAKING ABOUT CRAZY BETS, HERE'S ONE

BY BUD FISHER

BRINGING UP FATHER—

By McMANU

SHORT SHAVINGS

Ed Whipple, of Sycamore, Ohio, was limping when he arrived at the barber shop for the regular evening discussion of current events.

"Had an accident, Ed?" he was asked.

"No, he said. "A dog bit me on the leg. But it was no accident. He did it on purpose."

Joe Krabach, expert accountant, waited long for the short-cake he ordered in a restaurant, and finally it arrived.

He examined it carefully and found a lone strawberry in the whipped cream.

"I suppose," he says, "the delay was due to the strawberry having been mislaid."

Fire Chief Frank Grothouse of Delphos, was invited by a friend to go out for a ride in an automobile. The owner lighted a match to peep into the radiator to see if there was sufficient water.

He thinks he may have too high per cent of alcohol in it.

Anyhow, the contents of the radiator shot straight up like a skyrocket.

Elmer McClain, former service director, has a friend who gave him children a dog. They wanted a pet alligator, too. So he sent them one when he went to Florida.

The alligator has disappeared. The expression on the dog's face is one of triumph. No one knows, but the accepted explanation of the mystery is that he ate it.

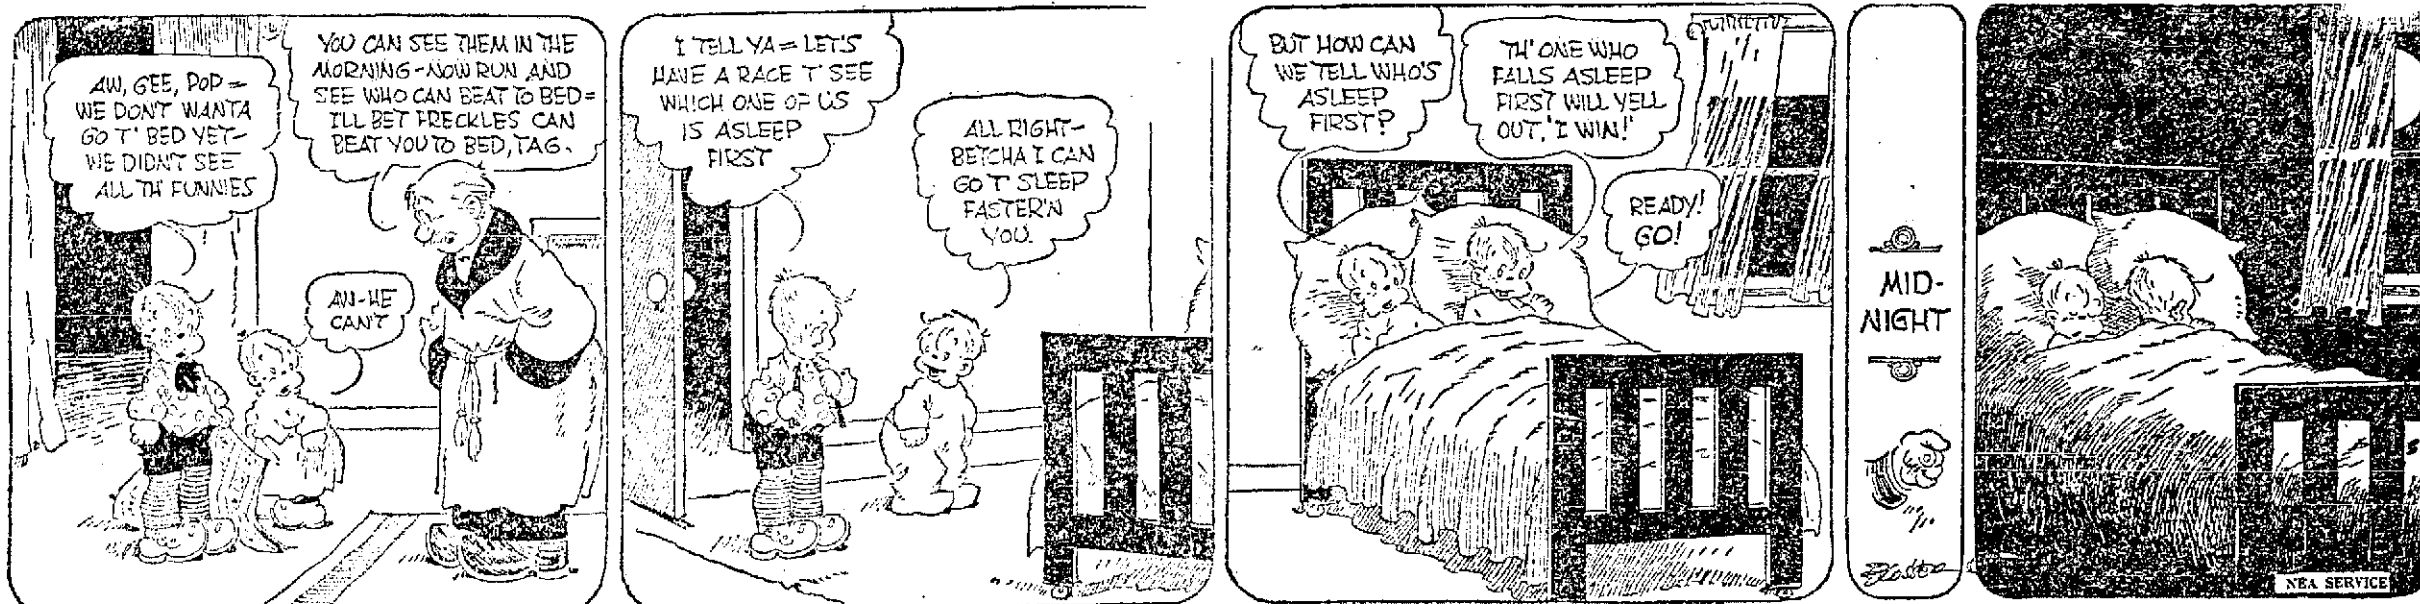

Clarence Farunfelter records the adventure of a little girl.

She coaxed a stray dog into the house to play. Her mother let it remain for one day. The little girl had a fine time. But when it came time for her to go to bed she had so many flea bites her mother thought she had measles.

A PRODUCT OF AMERICAN GENIUS

MORE than two billion dollars were required to build the Pennsylvania Railroad System. The American people furnished the money.

This vast transportation machine—at work day and night in the service of the people—embraces 11,880 miles of main line with a total trackage of 27,387 miles. It owns more than 7,600 locomotives and 8,240 passenger cars with a seating capacity for about 338,000 people. Its freight cars—more than 260,420 in number—are capable of carrying about 13,631,000 tons.

During the first three months of the present year the Pennsylvania Railroad System handled nearly two million loaded freight cars. This was a record movement, eighteen per cent. greater than the freight handled in the same period last year, thirty-four per cent. more than in 1921, and ten per cent. more than in 1920.

To move so tremendous a traffic safely and efficiently required the loyal cooperation of every employee and conclusively demonstrated the fact that the Pennsylvania Railroad organization—a product of American genius and enterprise—is united in the performance of a public service of surpassing value to the American people.
